

Day Program April News

Welcome to the InClusion Services Day Program Newsletter!
Please take a few minutes to read what we accomplished this month.
Enjoy!

Riding The Metro!

Consumers learned how to use the metro gold line and were able to sight see through East Los Angeles.

What great day!

Easter!

Consumers were able to meet the Easter Bunny at Bandini Park and take pictures. Consumers enjoyed this nice experience.

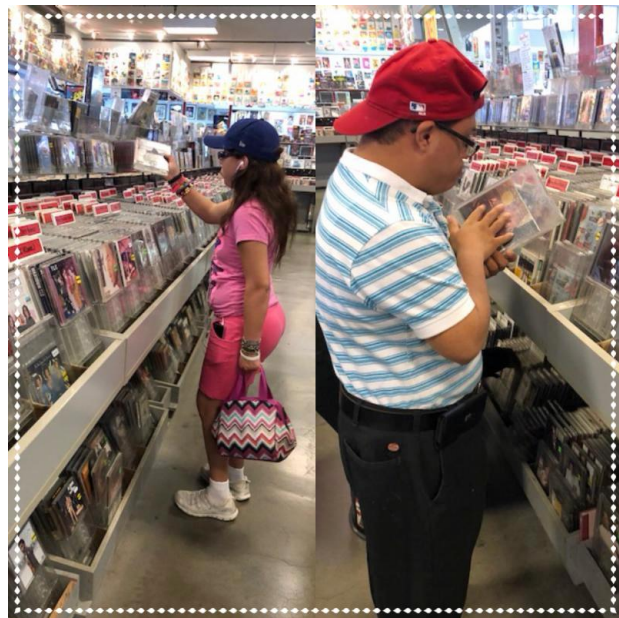

Enchanted Dance!

Consumers enjoyed a dance hosted by the Recreational Center in Pico Park. Consumers gathered to take pictures at the photo booth, dance and catch up with old friends.

Amoeba Music!

Our consumers love music, so they were extremely happy to visit the Amoeba store in Hollywood. Consumers got the chance to explore over 100's CDs and genres. Some consumers got the chance to purchase a CD of their choice.

Let the music begin!

Placita Olvera!

On a sunny day trip to La Placita Olvera, consumers enjoyed walking around leaning the culture, made purchases and looked at the great items from the vendors. There was so much to explore and see.

Do it Yourself Ice Cream

On Friday, April 13, consumers investigated how dissolving chemicals in water changes the freezing point of a solution. By using this method, consumers were able to make ice cream.

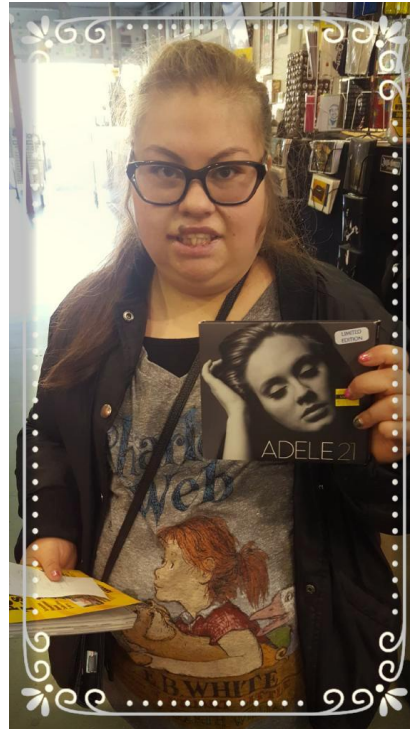

What a Fun Friday!

Welcome to Inclusion Services Day Program!

This month, ICS Day Program received one new consumer
